

SAICE PATRONS' ENGINEERING BURSARY SCHEME (SPEBS)

OCTOBER 2009 TO OCTOBER 2010

STATISTICS

Since the inception of SPEBS in 1992, 286 bursaries have been granted to 180 students during various levels of their courses towards the National Diploma or the Degree in Civil Engineering. To date a total of R872 000 has been spent on bursaries.

FIRST SEMESTER 2010

Current bursaries holders from 2009:

- Matthew Scott (4th year) studying at University of Johannesburg and sponsored by the SAICE Water Division
- Renisha Nikeyi (3rd year) studying at University of KwaZulu-Natal

No new bursaries were awarded.

Current bursary holders busy with their experiential learning:

- Reece Bester (S2) studying at Tshwane University of Technology
- Thando Mayimele (S2) studying at Durban University of Technology
- Chantelle Pieters (S2) studying at Cape Peninsula University of Technology
- Gregory Sellers (S2) studying at University of Johannesburg

SECOND SEMESTER 2010

Current bursary holders from previous semester:

- Matthew Scott (4th year) studying at University of Johannesburg

New bursaries were awarded to the following students:

- Pearl Nkosi (3rd year) studying at University of Johannesburg
- Mfunafuthi Mthethwa (S4) studying at Tshwane University of Technology
- McDonald Mhlongo (S4) studying at Durban University of Technology
- Craig Christians (S3) studying at Cape Peninsula University of Technology
- Daniel Lekonyane (S3) studying at Central University of Technology
- Siyanda Myataza (S3) studying at Durban University of Technology

- Andani Nesani (S2) studying at Cape Peninsula University of Technology

SPEBS CONTACT DETAILS

Contact person:	Bursary Administrator	SAICE – SPEBS Desk
Telephone:	011 805 5947	Private Bag X200
Fax:	011 805 5971	HALFWAY HOUSE
E-mail:	spebs@saice.org.za	1685

SPEBS PATRONS 2009/10

We express our sincere appreciation to the financial and moral support received during 2009 and 2010 from SAICE members, branches and divisions.